Accession Number	Format	Date	Number of Photographs	Notes
1001101.1	MS book	9 Jul - 16th Jul 1921	20	Kilchattan Bay, Bute. Camp log contains description of camp routine. Activities included bathing, boating, fishing from the rocks, football, tennis. Visited Rothesay. Under "health", "the only complaint was tender skin from the sun's rays". "The boys worked well together, and discipline was easily maintained with cheery comradeship among all. The object to be aimed at in welfare work should be to develop the physical and moral well being of the boys and in the camp, one has such an opportunity. It is some reward to feel one has helped ones younger brothers and instilled the seeds of 'Esprit de corps'. Log also includes expenditure.
1001101.2	MS book	8th Jul - 17th Jul 1922	23	Kilchattan Bay, Bute. Camp motto: "Pull your weight". "Some rain during the stay, but grey skies did not damp the spirits of the campers. Recreations were varied including football, putting green, fishing, boating, rambles, and an outing by charabanc to Rothesay, thence by steamer round the island."
1001101.3	MS book	7th Jul - 16th Jul 1923	17	Third annual camp at Kilchattan Bay, Bute. Camp motto: "Keep smiling". "Splendid weather favoured our stay, one day only being wet. Visitors day brought large numbers from the city. Sports were held in the afternoon and included some special and humorous events, even the tug-o-war rope was in sporting mood and refused to stand the strain."
1001101.4	MS book	12th Jul - 21st Jul 1924	11	Fourth annual camp at Largiemenock, Whiting Bay. Inclusive charge 25/-. The weather was very broken, especially during the earlier period of our stay, but everyone enjoyed good health. Mr B Lamond.
1001101.5	MS book	11th Jul - 21st Jul 1925	25	Fifth annual camp at Kelspoke, Bute. "The weather was in our favour being warm and mostly dry. Health was good, a number of minor cuts being our only casualties. The camp was visited by Major Hickes M.C.T.D, Provost of Rothesay.

1001101.6	MS book	10th Jul - 19th Jul 1926	22	Sixth annual camp at Girvan. "Weather on the whole was excellent, very hot at times, and very little rain made conditions favourable. Visitors day was intensely warm...the programme was slightly reduced owing to the heat. A picnic was arranged to Ailsa Craig on the S.S. Lady Ailsa.
1001101.7	MS book	9th Jul - 18th Jul 1927	15	Seventh annual camp at Brochniell Farm, Girvan. "Our numbers were not as great this year...a number of our older campers having reached journeyman rank & the newer boys have not yet joined in. The King and Queen were visiting Glasgow on our usual visitors day, and no visitors came down to camp.
1001101.8	Ms Book	7th Jul - 16th Jul 1928	14	Eighth annual camp at Kelspoke, Kilchattan Bay, Bute. "Visits were paid to Rothesay and Millport. Among the innovations at this camp was a portable gramophone, which was in great demand.
1001101.9	MS book	6th Jul - 15th Jul 1929	17	Ninth annual camp at Bogany Farm, Rothesay. "An extensive view of the Firth of Clyde from the Cloch to Garroch Head, with Largs ana Wemyss Bay across the water to be had from the front door.
1001101.10	MS book	12th Jul - 21st Jul 1930	12	Tenth annual camp at Bogany Farm, Rothesay. "We had a large company including 8 of the C.B. girls holidaying at Dunoon in place of their annual camp, who came over and took part in some of the sports. In spite of wet weather, health and spirit were good, and standard of company up to former years.
1001101.11	MS book	11th Jul - 20th Jul 1931	19	Eleventh annual camp at Couston Farm, Aberdour. "The journey proved interesting to most of the boys, especially the crossing of the Forth Road Bridge. An outing was arranged to the capital. The day was perfect, 'Auld Reekie' looked her best."
1001101.12	MS book	9th Jul - 18th Jul 1932	24	Twelfth annual camp at Orlock, Bangor. "Visits were made to Portrush, the Glens of Antrim and Belfast. No visitors day was held, but 2 B.B. (city bakeries) girls on holiday gave us a visit."

1001101.13	Ms book	8th Jul - 17th Jul 1933	18	Thirteenth annual camp held at Orlock - Groomsport, County Down. "We had between C.B. boys and 97th Scouts, 34 in camp. The party sailed from Broomielaw in the 'Lairdscastle'. There had been some fears about our sailing owing to an official seaman's strike, but we left on time. For the first time in any of our camps, the C.B. boys beat the Scouts at cricket, and naturally great rejoicing, and a demand to be photographed. Some of the campers had a circular tour, By Belfast to Warrenpoint, where the Irish Free State is only separated from the North by a narrow strip of water. Visits were also paid to Belfast, a party going in on Orange Day."
1001101.14	MS book	7th Jul - 16th Jul 1934	18	Fourteenth annual camp held at Tromode - Douglas. "Through the help freely and kindly given by the Boy Scouts Association, a first class site was secured at Douglas, Isle of Man. The site was well secluded, and sheltered with a thick belt of trees. A stream running in front of the site gave bathing facilities to the campers."
1001101.15	MS book	6th Jul - 15th Jul 1935	17	Fifteenth annual camp held at Orlock, County Down. We were kept awake one night by heavy gunfire, further up the [Belfast] Lough, from battery practice there, and were rather amused to read of the earthquake scare it caused along the Ayrshire coast. On the last night a joint camp fore in which Irish scouts joined, took place, with music, song, the camp finished on a happy note, all joining to sing 'Abide with me'. Some hours before the boat was due, we arrived in Belfast, allowing the boys to have a look around, in spite of the shootings, which has recently taken place there, all was quiet."
1001101.16	MS book	10th Jul - 20th Jul 1936	15	Sixteenth annual camp held at Castleward, Tromode, Douglas, Isle of Man. "It is a tale of wet days, with in particularly so on Friday Evening when a thunder storm lasting over 6 hours, with torrential rain flooded part of the camp, but we weathered it, none the worse."

1001101.17	MS book	10th Jul - 19th Jul 1937	15	Seventeenth annual camp held at Groomsport, Belfast Lough.
1001101.18	MS book	9th Jul - 18th Jul 1938	15	Eighteenth annual camp held at Groomsport, County Down. "We sailed by the Royal Ulsterman on 9th July. Our best day was the last one, a perfect summer day. An international game of foot ball was played on the village green on 13th July between the camp and natives from Groomsport and Belfast. It was quite an event in the village and aroused a good deal of enthusiasm and interest."
1001101.19	MS book		16	1939 has been a year of hopes and fears, hopes that peace might be preserved and fear of war breaking out.
