

EARLY GLASGOW MAPS

Date	Title	Description	Scale	Engraver/Publisher	Ref. No.
12th century COPY	Map of the City of Glasgow showing the original area in the 12th century & the areas which have been added from the period until the present time	R. Renwick, Town Clerk Depute; AB Mcdonald, City Engineer. Published for the City Chambers.		John Bartholemew	EGM 1
1547 et seq.	Sketch Plan of the City of Glasgow 1547 et seq.	Showing Garngadhill to Gorbals; Broomielaw to Barrowfield. Most streets named. Buildings shown, some named. Land owners shown. Note which says: "it is supposed that in 1547 there were no buildings on the north side of Trongait, west of the West Port. Those shown on the plan were of a later period.	9.2"= 1 mile approx.	Robert Gardner & Co., Glasgow	EGM 2
c.1560	Sketch Plan of the City of Glasgow c.1560	Showing Garngadhill to Little Govan; Broomielaw to Molendinar. Individual streets, buildings and land owners named.	9"= 1 mile approx.		EGM 3
1568	Sketch Plan relative to "The Battle of Langside" by A.M. Scott, F.S.A.	Showing Cathedral to Castlemilk; Pollokshaws to Rutherglen. Very detailed for Langside, giving positions of troop. Roads and place delineated in full lines existed in 1568, those by faint dotted lines by 1884.	2.8" = 1 mile	Robert Gardner & Co., Glasgow	EGM4
1596	Timothy Pont	Aperture card only			EGM5
16th century	Sketch Plan of Principal Buildings and places in the Vicinity of Glasgow Cathedral in 16th century. .	Showing fields north of Cathedral (Common Muir and Bellcroft) to Duke Street; Dobbie's Loan to Molendinar. Land owners given. Cathedral and Bishop's Palace shown in details and existing streets underprinted.	1.75"= 200ft.		EGM6

EARLY GLASGOW MAPS

Date	Title	Description	Scale	Engraver/Publisher	Ref. No.
1641	First "Portrait" of Glasgow	Showing Partick to Rutherglen; Govan to Balornock. Some streets shown but not named. Main districts and houses in the area named and marked. "The City Treasurer was ordained on 12 June 1641 to pay to James Colquhoun fyve dollouris for drawing a portrait of the town..."	2"=1 mile		EGM7
c.1650	A map of Glasgow and adjoining district about the year 1650	Showing Possil to Gorbals; Partick to Camlackie. Most streets named, individual buildings shown in some detail.	6"=1 mile approx.	Robert Gardner & Co., Glasgow	EGM8
c.1654	The Clyde at and below Glasgow	Showing Woodside to Cardonald; Paisley to Dalmarnock	1" = 4 miles approx.		EGM9
1662	Map of the River Clyde and adjoining district	Compiled from Blaeu's Atlas , Amsterdam, 1662. Auchindean to Mill of Cart; Kelly to east Glasgow. Main buildings shown in details for various towns - churches in particular. Main streets indicated.		Johannes Blaeu	EGM10
17th century	The City of Glasgow in the seventeenth century	Cowcaldanes to Gorbals and Brigend; Broomielaw to Wester Craigs. Streets named; buildings outlined, many individually named.	9"=1 mile (approx)	Robert Gardiner, lithographer	EGM11
1734	The river of Clyde surveyed by John Watt (Sen.)	Published by John Watt, 1760. Rutherglen to Bute; Accompanying inset map - Entry to the River and Firth of Clyde...to a smaller scale. Individual buildings not shown; main streets indicated by not named.		Published by John Watt, 1760. Engraved on stone by Schcnck & McFarlane, Edinburgh	EGM12

EARLY GLASGOW MAPS

Date	Title	Description	Scale	Engraver/Publisher	Ref. No.
1755	A plan of part of ye City of Glasgow and course of the Burn Molen dinar leading to the saw mill erected by William Fleming, merchant in Glasgow ...	High Street to Low Green; Stockwell Street to Gallowgate Green. Many streets and wynds named, buildings have sketchy outlines. Also in title: "saw mill...set agoeing in 1752. Demolished by the magistrates of Glasgow on 23 June 1764, for which he then commenced a process against the said magistrates before the Court of Session. In consequence of the final judgment given on the 9 July 1768, the Magistrate paid the pursuer on the 18th November following, £610 1s 4d sterling and were also obliged to relieve him of the expenses of extracting the decree."	8"=1 mile (approx)		EGM13
1758		Surveyed by James Barry and John Smeaton. Source not traced.		R.W. Seale	EGM14
1760/1	Candleriggs	Ramshorn Church to Trongate; buildings on west of Candleriggs to buildings on east. Markets, business and trading houses shown. In Glasgow: past and present by Robert Reid ("Senex"), [1851]			EGM15
1760/2	Plan of the Low Green of Glasgow and its environs	Gallowgate to Low Green; Saltmarket to Gallowgate Green. Many streets named and some buildings. In Glasgow Past and Present by Robert Reid ("Senex") Vol.3, frontis.	3 and 3/4 yds =200yds	Robert Gardiner, lithographer	EGM16

EARLY GLASGOW MAPS

Date	Title	Description	Scale	Engraver/Publisher	Ref. No.
1764	A plan of part of ye City of Glasgow and the course of the Burn Molendinar...	Old College to the Clyde; Stockwell Street to Glasgow Green. Many streets, wynds, closes and markets named. Originally prepared in a law suit between William Fleming and the Magistrates (cf.EGM13). The mill was opened in 1752 and demolished in 1764, after which commenced a lawsuit, with the final judgement passed in 1768 (hence various dates of the maps)	4"=200yds	John Tweed	EGM17
1773/1	A Plan of Glasgow by Charles Ross	Cathedral to Gorbals; Broomielaw to Calton. Names of main streets and districts given, buildings clearly shown. Photo-lithographed by W. & A.K. Johnston. Inset in: A map of the shire of Lanark...an inch to a mile...by Charles Ross. Reference given at side to streets and buildings indicated by a letter on the map. The first plan of the whole area of the city laid down on a scale sufficiently large enoough to show the more important buildings. Shows a block plan of the buildings of Archbishop's Castle, with Beaton's Tower and the great gatehouse.	10.4"=1 mile	George Cameron	EGM18
1773/2	Plan of the Barony and Regality of Glasgow	Cadder to Rutherglen; Shieldhall to Airdrie. Shows parish boundaries for Barony, Cadder, Old Monkland and Govan. Villages, seats and wards shown, buildings not shown in any detail.	1"=1 mile	Allan & Ferguson, lithographers	EGM19
1774	Plan of the Houses and Yards of Dalmarnock, March 1774	Compiled by Neil MacVicar			EGM19a

EARLY GLASGOW MAPS

Date	Title	Description	Scale	Engraver/Publisher	Ref. No.
1775	Plan of the City of Glasgow and of the villages of Calton and Gorbells with a part of the adjacent country. Engraved from an actual survey of Mr. James Barry.	North of Cathedral to south of Gorbals; Broomielaw to Calton. Streets named but few buildings.	10"=1 mile	Published by Frank Simpson, Bookseller, 27 Sauchiehall Street. Engraved by Andrew Ready, Glasgow	EGM20
1777	A plan of sundry streets in Glasgow relating to a road dispute between the College and its inhabitants (action commenced in 1775). Copy as surveyed by W. Douglas, Dec 1777.	Drygate to Gallowgate; High Street to Barnick Street. Streets shown in details, some named buildings.	Large scale	Engraved on wood by J. Urie, Glasgow. Robert Gardner & Co., Engineering Lithographers. Published by David Robertson & Co. Glasgow, 1884	EGM21
1778/1	Plan of the City of Glasgow/Gorbals and Calton from an actual survey by John McArthur, surveyor in Glasgow.	Cathedral to Little Govan; Anderston to Barrowfields. Many named streets and buildings, good detail. Eastern boundary of royalty shown. Dedication to : the Lord Provost, Baillies, Dean of Guild and Convenor with the Counsellors of the City of Glasgow.	11.5" = 1 mile	Alexander Baillie and James Lumsden	EGM22
1778	Glasgow 82 years ago reduced by David Smith, C.E. from McArthur's four sheet map of 1778	Cathedral to Gorbals; Anderston to Barrowfield. An accurate cop with some additions e.g. an oblique inlet of the Clyde east of the mouth of the Molendinar and field west of Graham's square marked "depth work". Huchuring for high ground at Rottenrow. Streets named and also many buildings. Eastern and western boundaries of Royalty shown. In MI. Ref. No. 475848	11.9" = 1 mile	Published by Thomas Murray & Son	EGM23
1778	Plan of the City of Glasgow and of the villages of Calton and Gorbells with a part of the adjacent (sic) country. Engraved from an actual survey of Mr. James Barry's.	Cathedral to Gorbals; Broomielaw to Calton. Some streets and main buildings named. Population for 1776 given as 39,000. In MI. Ref. No. 542619	6" = 1 mile		EGM24

EARLY GLASGOW MAPS

Date	Title	Description	Scale	Engraver/Publisher	Ref. No.
1778	Map of the Townhead	Castle Street Toll to Drygate; Bowling Green to Cathedral. Some streets and buildings named. Originally drawn from Fleming's survey of 1807 but later altered to agree mainly with McArthur's plan of 1778. Lines of present streets (1910) shown in dotted lines. Charles Cleland Harvey, Oct. 1910	2.4" = 200ft.		EGM25
1779	Plan of the city of Glasgow reduced by A B engraver, from John McArthur's four sheet plan of it ...while he was engraving the same for him.	Cathedral to Gorbals; Grahamston to Calton. Streets named, individual buildings shown, a few named. Much details has been lost or inaccurately copied. Reference letters at side to old wynds. From Prints Collection	7.1" = 1 mile	Published 1st Nov 1779 by John McArthur	EGM26
1782	Plan of the City of Glasgow Gorbells, Calton & environs with an exact delineation of its Royalty from an actual survey by James Barry surveyor in Glasgow. Engraved by Alexander Baillie 1782 (with additional lettering...& delineation of canals and some streets formed subsequent to 1782	Streets and some buildings named. Lands around town mapped out and named. Cathedral drawn, not diagramatic. A feature is the numbering of Royalty March stones. The 1906 edition includes streets subsequent to 1782, e.g. New City Road, Parliamentary Road and Monkland Canal. In Charters and Documents relating to the City of Glasgow, 1175-1649 ed. by Sir J.D. Marwick (1897)	6.6" = 1 mile	Gavin Watson, lithographer, Glasgow	EGM27
1783	Plan of the city of Glasgow	Cathedral to Gorbals; Grahamston to Calton. A few streets named, individual houses shown, although not named.	7" = 1 mile approx.	J Lumsden, Glasgow	EGM28
1784	Plan of the city of Glasgow	(Cartouche in the form of pedestal with urn of top) for the Glasgow Almanack. Few streets named.	7" = 1 mile approx.	J Lumsden, sculpt	EGM29

EARLY GLASGOW MAPS

Date	Title	Description	Scale	Engraver/Publisher	Ref. No.
1790	Plan of the city of Glasgow from an actual survey, 1790	Cathedral to Gorbals; Anderston to east of Calton. Most streets named, some buildings.	10" = 1 mile	Anon.	EGM30
1795	Map of the town of Glasgow & Country Seven miles around from an actual survey by Tho. Richardson, Landsurveyor, Glasgow...	Kirkintilloch to East Kilbridge; Paisley to (Baillieson). Alphabetical list of estates with owners given in margins. Clear, well-draughted map. Little detail for Glasgow. On the right, the references "show the distance of every gentlemen's seat from the Cross of Glasgow..." The 1883 reprint was publ. by David Robertson & Co. Glasgow, W. & A.K. Johnston, Edinburgh. There is a dedication to Andrew Houston Esq. of Jordanhill, in top left corner.	1.5" = 1 mile	Kirkwood, sculpt. Edinburgh	EGM 31
1795	Plan of the city of Glasgow from an actual survey, 1795	As EGM30 with additions e.g. Glassford Street, Trades Hall. Scale of distances added.	10" = 1 mile	Anon.	EGM32
1795	Plan of the Barony of Gorbals, 1795	River Clyde to Craig Park Quarry; Kinning House Burn to Blind Burn. Compiled for the Regality Club by N.S. McDonald.	2" = 15 chains		EGM33
1797	A plan of the City of Glasgow from a survey in 1797. J. Denholm dealt. Engraved for Chapman, Stewart & Meikle's Guide to Glasgow .	Cathedral to Gorbals; Anderston to Bridgeton. Main Streets named, some individual buildings shown. Key to public buildings. This map is also used for the 2nd edition of Denholm's History (1798) See 1804 map for 3rd ed., with alterations and additions e.g. Barony Church, built in 1798.	5.3" = 1 mile	R.Scott	EGM34
1801	A plan of the city of Glasgow from an actual survey	Cathedral to Gorbals; Anderston to Annfield. Some streets and individual buildings named, with a key to main buildings. Very similar to EGM34.	4 1/2" = 1 mile	R.Scott	EGM35

EARLY GLASGOW MAPS

Date	Title	Description	Scale	Engraver/Publisher	Ref. No.
1801	Ainslie's Map of Renfrewshire 2nd edition (1801)	Aperture cards only			EGM35a
1804	A plan of the City of Glasgow from a survey in 1797. J. Denholm dealt.	Cathedral to Gorbals; Anderston to Bridgeton. Main streets named and some individual building. Key to public buildings. This edition shown alterations to the 2nd edition (see 1797) e.g. Barony Church built in 1798. Cruder version in Chapman's Picture of Glasgow (1806)	5.4" = 1 mile	R.Scott	EGM36
1806	Plan of Glasgow engraved for the Picture of Glasgow 1st edition.	Cathedral to Gorbals; Anderston to Bridgeton. Many streets and some public buildings named, other buildings given in a key. Some detail of building outlines.	5.2"= 1 mile	Gray & Todd	EGM37
1807	Map of the city of Glasgow and suburbs Surveyed and corrected till January 1807 by Peter Fleming, Member of the Philosophical Society of Glasgow.	Names of streets, public buildings, hotels, markets, factories, private house owners shown. Plans of individual buildings are given in some detail. The map is in six sheets and has a small inset map of Glasgow in 1779. Note: Fleming was employed by the city to draw street maps for submission to Parliament. It is possible that he trained with William Kyle, One of Glasgow's most important surveyors. Fleming's plan was re-issued in 1808 as a single sheet and, again, in 1820. Dedicated to the Lord Provost, Magistrates and Town Council.	6" = 1000ft	Engraved by R. Scott, Edinburgh and sold by D. Niven and Company, Glasgow etc.	EGM38
1808	Map of the city of Glasgow and suburbs Reduced from the same in six sheets from an actual survey by P. Fleming	Monkland Canal to Gorbals; Anderston to [Dennistoun]. Streets named and individual buildings shown. Full key.	6"= 1 mile	R.Scott	EGM 39

EARLY GLASGOW MAPS

Date	Title	Description	Scale	Engraver/Publisher	Ref. No.
1812	Plan of Glasgow engraved for the Picture of Glasgow . 2nd edition.	Cathedral to Gorbals; Anderston to Bridgeton. Many streets and some public buildings named, other buildings given in a key. See 1806 for earlier edition, added to 1812 ed. Are the Observatory, St. George's Church, etc. See 1818 map for later edition showing street development in area north and west of Argyle and Buchanan Streets.	5.2" = 1 mile	R. Gray	EGM40
1816	The County of Lanark from an actual survey by William Forrest.	From a survey made in 1813. Streets are detailed, buildings less so. Main parish divisions are clearly shown e.g. boundary between Barony and Royalty. Key used for buildings etc. Tables give size and population of each parish and distances of various places from Glasgow.	1 1/2 mile	J & G Menzies, Edinburgh	EGM41
1818	Plan of Glasgow engraved for the Picture of Glasgow 3rd edition	Cathedral to Gorbals; Anderston to Bridgeton. Many building outlines are only diagrammatic. Streets and some public buildings named, others given in key. This shows additions to 2nd ed.	5" = 1 mile approx.	R. Gray	EGM42
1820	Partick in 1820	Dowanhill to Yorkhill; Orchard Street to Bogles Hole. Main streets are shown, most named. A quarry is shown, mills on the Kelvin and trees depicted.	Large scale	Allan and Ferguson, lithographers	EGM43
1821/1	Map of the city of Glasgow and suburbs Originally published by Mr. Fleming in 1807, surveyed and brought down to May 1821 by David Smith, Member of the Philosophical Society of Glasgow.	Monkland Canal to Tradeston; Anderston to Bridgeton. Covers same area as 1807 edition, showing in detail the many additions and alterations. Parish divisions are given. In six separate sheets.	4 1/4" = 1000ft	R. Scott, Edinburgh	EGM44

EARLY GLASGOW MAPS

Date	Title	Description	Scale	Engraver/Publisher	Ref. No.
1821/2	Plan of the City of Glasgow accurately exhibited. Engraved to accompany Glasgow Delineated	Port Dundas to Gorbals; Anderston to Bridgeton. Many streets named, only public buildings shown in outline named, some on key. Same map used in 1824 edition. The later edition of 1826 shows more street names and new buildings e.g. New Grammar School	5" = 1 mile	Published by Wardlaw & Cunninghame, Glasgow and Engraved by R. Scott, Edinburgh	EGM45
1822	Map of the ten parishes within the royalty and the parishes of Gorbals and Barony of Glasgow prepared for the enumeration of the inhabitants by ...James Cleland Surveyor, David Smith.	Springburn to Govanhill; west of Anderston to (Dennistoun). Very few individual buildings shown, most streets named. Some of the drumlins on which Glasgow is built are depicted e.g. Garnethill, Sighthill. Boundaries of the parishes are shown, as are the numbered Royalty stones. Smaller scale inset map of Barony parish and the Royalty of Glasgow: Bishopbriggs to Clyde; Kelvin to Baillieston. See 1831 for another edition.	6" = 1 mile	Kirkwood and Son	EGM46
1822	Glasgow. Drawn by W. Johnson, Edinburgh	Port Dundas to Gorbals; Anderston to Bridgeton. East at top of map. Most streets named, public buildings indicated but few named. North and west of Argyle and Buchanan Streets somewhat diagrammatic.	5.9" = 1 mile	Sidney Hall, London	EGM47
1825	Map of the City of Glasgow and suburbs 1825	(St. Rollox Chemical Works) to Gorbals; Anderston to Bridgeton. Many streets named, few public buildings names; few outlines shown.	5.5" = 1 mile	Gray & Sons	EGM48

EARLY GLASGOW MAPS

Date	Title	Description	Scale	Engraver/Publisher	Ref. No.
1826/1	Plan of the City of Glasgow accurately exhibited. Engraved to accompany Glasgow Delineated.	Port Dundas to Gorbals; Anderston to Bridgeton. All streets named, only public buildings shown in outline named, some named on key. Same map used in 1824 edition.	5" = 1 mile	Published by Wardlaw & Cunninghame, Glasgow and Engraved by R. Scott, Edinburgh	EGM49
1826/2	Map of the city of Glasgow and suburbs	St. Rollox to Gorbals; Anderston to Bridgeton. Many streets named, few public buildings. Quarter mile circles around (1) Broomielaw at Steam Boat Quay, north of river and (2) Unidentified point south of river	6" = 1 mile	Published by W. McFeat and Engraved by Grey & Son	EGM50
1827	Sketch of the stations of the several watchmen within the Royalty of the City of Glasgow	Port Dundas to Glasgow Green; Anderston to Camlachie. Almost all streets named, few public buildings, no other buildings indicated. Watchmen's rounds numbered and coloured on map.	6.5" = 1 mile		EGM51
1828/1	Plan of the city of Glasgow and its environs with all the latest improvements accurately surveyed by Mr. David Smith	Port Dundas to Gorbals; (Charing Cross) to Camlachie. Very good detail, streets named and many public buildings, property owners etc. named. Royalty boundary with numbered royalty stones shown. Parishes number with key.	13.7" = 1 mile	Engraved by R. Scott, Edinburgh	EGM52
1828/2	Plan of the country between Glasgow and Kingswell showing the alterations proposed on the road from that city towards Kilmarnock, with the sections of the respective lines.	Clarkston Toll to Thornliebank; High Street to Stewarton Road. Streets in Glasgow shown, not named, no buildings. Shows proposed roads to Kilmarnock, taking in Pollokshaws. Not much detail	1" = 1 mile	Engraved by Kirkwood & Son, Edinburgh	EGM53

EARLY GLASGOW MAPS

Date	Title	Description	Scale	Engraver/Publisher	Ref. No.
1829/1	Plan of a proposed Grand North Approach to the City of Glasgow from the Great Northern Roads by Stirling's Road. Prepared and drawn by David Smith, Glasgow	St. Rollox to George Square; Renfield Street to (beginning of Alexandra Parade). All streets named, individual buildings shown, names of property owners given. Three proposed routes for Parliamentary Road: (1) Dr. Cleland's; (2) McQuisten's and (3) widening of Stirling's Road. St. Enoch's Burn is clearly shown as the Royalty boundary.	28" = 1 mile	Drawn on stone and printed by J. Watson & Co., 230 George Street	EGM54
1829/2	Plan of a public road intended to connect the Inchbelly Bridge and Garscube Highways...under the direction of James Cleland ...surveyed by William Kyle	St. Rollox Works to George Square; Renfield Street to (Alexandra Parade). Streets named, no individual buildings shown. Somewhat thematic in form. Shows Cleland's and McQuisten's proposed routes.	21" = 1 mile		EGM55
1829/3	Plan of a proposed new approach from the two great North Roads to the City of Glasgow	Bleachfield to North of George Square; West Nile Street to east of Monkland Canal Basin. Streets shown, some named, few individual buildings, some proprietors named. Shows Cleland's and McQuisten's proposed routes for Parliamentary Road. This map accompanies McQuisten's Report.	29" = 1 mile approx		EGM56

EARLY GLASGOW MAPS

Date	Title	Description	Scale	Engraver/Publisher	Ref. No.
1829/4	No title on map	(Colston Road) to Clyde; (Charing Cross) to (Dennistoun). Streets shown, many named, few buildings. The book which the map accompanies is a criticism of plans for a railway tunnel from St. Rollox to the Broomielaw; the map therefore shows more detail than is usual for an area in the north side of Glasgow. It shows several proposed railways in this area, the proposed Parliamentary Road and a proposed new road from Springburn to the head of Buchanan Street.	5.6" = 1 mile	Miller, lithographer, 82 Trongate	EGM57
1829/5	A map of the country 8 miles round Glasgow	Kirkintilloch to East Kilbridge; Paisley to Bargeddie. The map is circular in shape; at the four corners, views of Paisley, Glasgow, Rutherglen and Renfrew and on either side views of various churches. Little detail for Glasgow. For a similar map, see Richardson, 1795.	7.5" dia.	Published by H. Wilson, engraver	EGM58
1831	Prepared for the enumeration of the inhabitants ...Map of the ten parishes within the Royalty and the parishes of Gorbals and Barony of Glasgow	(Springburn to Strathbungo; west of Anderston to (Dennistoun). Streets clearly shown, most named, few buildings - extends further north than usual. An inset map on a smaller scale shows the extent of the Barony Parish - from Kelvin's to Bishop's Loch. An account of the various boundary changes is included. Another edition of Cleland's 1822 map. Dedicated to Robert Dalglish, Lord Provost	5.6" = 1 mile

EARLY GLASGOW MAPS

Date	Title	Description	Scale	Engraver/Publisher	Ref. No.
1832/1	Plan referred to in report upon the parliamentary boundaries of the Burgh of Glasgow	River Kelvin to Parkhead; St. Rollox to Govan. Shows clearly the proposed burgh boundaries with numbered and named points. Streets are detailed, buildings outlines. Outstanding buildings, landmarks, villages and districts named.	6" = 1 mile
1832/2	Plan of Rutherglen showing a parliamentary boundary...Reproduced from Reports upon the Boundaries of Several Cities, Burghs and Towns in Scotland	Glasgow Green to Clinkert Hill; Polmadie Burn to Dalmarnock Bridge. Streets detailed and named, buildings marked - significant ones named, as are bridges.	7" = 1 mile		EGM61
1832/3	Map of the environs of Glasgow	North end of Loch Lomond to Nielston; Loch Eck to east Stirling. Practically no details of Glasgow itself, but roads radiating from Glasow clearly marked.	1" = 2 mile	Published by C & J Cary, London	EGM62
1833	Glasgow New Burgh District Map, McPhun's Guide through Glasgow.	Taken from the 1826 map with slight alterations, e.g. the key is more extensive	5.2" = 1 mile	Swan, sculpt.	EGM 63
1835/1	Glasgow: inset map	Shows main streets and simplified building blocks. No names othe than 'River Clyde' and 'Green.'	1.2" = 1 mile approx.		EGM64
1835/2	Two maps to accompany a prospectus showing relative position of ports, with which vessels navigating the canal have frequent communication; also shows adjacent canals and railways. Drawn and prepared in reference to the above prospectus by Neil Robson, Civil Engineer, Glasgow	Sketch No. 1 is almost all of Great Britain and Sketch No.2 is the Forth and Clyde Canal from Ardrossan to Kirkcaldy, Doune to Lanark. Show approx. position of main towns, roads and rivers.	8" = 1 mile	Lithographed by McLure and McDonald, 190 Trongate	EGM65
1837/1	Glasgow New Burgh District Map. McPhun's Guide through Glasgow.	Port Dundas to Gorbals; West of Anderston to (Dennistoun). Most streets are named and several public buildings	5.1" = 1 mile	Swan, sculpt.	EGM66

EARLY GLASGOW MAPS

Date	Title	Description	Scale	Engraver/Publisher	Ref. No.
1837/2	Map of the Basin of the Clyde...with a greater part of Lanarkshire...from a survey by John Knox	Balfron to Ayr; Glasgow area quite small, surrounding districts in good detail	1"=2 miles		EGM67
1837/3	The Village of Govan. 1837	River Clyde to Copland Road; Govan Road to Renfrew. Streets shown and named; individual buildings shown including doors and windows! Public buildings and landowners shown. In the bottom left hand corner is the Burgh Coat of Arms and the village emblem, a ram.			EGM68
1839	Plan of the city of Glasgow and its environs accurately surveyed and brought down to the present time by David Smith and James Collie	Very large scale map with a lot of detail. Individual buildings shown, landowners given, many factories, foundries, churches and proposed developments named. Includes a reference to the parishes. See Martin's 1842 map for an updated version.	24" = 1 mile	Engraved and published by J. Scott...Edinburgh and John Symington & Co., Glasgow	EGM68a
c.1840-46	Glasgow - the plan drawn and engraved by J. Rapkin. The illustrations drawn and engraved by H. Winkles.	Garngad to Gorbals; Partick to Dalmarnock. Most streets are named and some public buildings. Boundary of Glasgow and various railways and parks are shown. The six illustrations are: Royal Exchange, Cathedral; Royal Bank; University; New Bridge and a view of Glasgow from the Green	3.5" = 1 mile	Drawn and engraved by J. Rapkin. Illustrations by H. Winkles. Published by John Tallis & Co.	EGM69
1841/1	Plan of Glasgow	Port Dundas to Gorbals; Kelvin to (Dennistoun). Many streets named and individual buildings shown; proposed street layouts in the West End. View of Glasgow Bridge at foot with smaller views to left and right - Judiciary Building and	6.3" = 1 mile	Published by J. & D. Nichol, Montrose. Lithography by [William] Nichol, Edinburgh	EGM70

EARLY GLASGOW MAPS

Date	Title	Description	Scale	Engraver/Publisher	Ref. No.
1841/2	Plan of Glasgow	A copy of EGM70 reprinted by W.R. McPhun.	6.3"= 1 mile	W.R. McPhun, 84 Argyle Street, Glasgow	EGM71
1841/3	Plan of Glasgow	Another copy of EGM70, with a proposed railway line crossing the River Clyde at Stockwell Bridge added in ink, also added on mss. the date 1844.		Published by Francis Orr & Sons, Glasgow	EGM72
1842	Map of the city of Glasgow ... including the Parliamentary boundaries, division of parishes, police wards of the city & suburbs...with intended improvements by George Martin Esqr, Civil Engineer and Surveyor.	Sighthill Cemetery to Coplawhill; Partickhill to [Shettleston]. Excellent large scale map with minute detail, individual buildings clearly marked. Proprietors of land shown, many factories, mills, foundries etc. named. The many wynds off High Street and Saltmarket are clearly shown. Small scale map (6.7"=1 mile) in upper left hand corner shows Glasgow in 1778 - a reduced copy of McArthur's map of this date, with the outlines simplified and many names omitted. There are four small scale maps at the foot (2.6"=1 mile) 1) Parliamentary districts; 2)Municipal districts; 3)Police wards; 4) Quoad civilia parishes. This map is constructed in five pieces - one large centre piece with two smaller ones on either side. There are slight discrepancies between sections. The dedication is to James Campbell, Lord Provost.	14.8"=1 mile	Engraved by W. & A.K. Johnston, geographers to the Queen, Edinburgh	EGM73
[1842]	Plan of the City of Glasgow, accurately exhibited		1" - 1033.3 ft	Published by R. Martin, Arthur Street, Edinburgh	EGM73a

EARLY GLASGOW MAPS

Date	Title	Description	Scale	Engraver/Publisher	Ref. No.
1844	Plan of Glasgow and Railway Lines	Port Dundas to Gorbals; Anderston to Bridgeton. Streets named and some individual buildings named. Some colour used, railway lines being in red. On either side of the railways are the coats of arms of Glasgow and Edinburgh. There are illustrations of six monuments to famous men at the bottom.		Engraved for Mcdowall's Guide Through Glasgow by G. Aikman	EGM74
1846	Plan of Glasgow showing proposed railway termini	Port Dundas to Cavalry Barracks; Charing Cross to Glasgow Green. Streets shown in detail but only main streets named. Shows routes of proposed railways and termini in Glasgow.	6.1"=1 mile	Maclure & Macdonald, Lithographers, 57 Buchanan Street, Glasgow	EGM75
c.1847	Glasgow, lithographed by William Simpson	Those parts of the title in brackets are manuscript additions by Wm. Simpson	2"=1 mile (approx)	Published by Allan & Ferguson, lithographers and engravers, 74 Buchanan Street, Glasgow	EGM76
1847/1	Plan of the city of Glasgow, 1847. Allan & Ferguson Lithographers, Glasgow	St. Rollox to Gorbals; Partick to Bridgeton. Many streets named. No individual buildings named in city centre, many in outlying areas.	4"=1 mile	Published by Robert Stuart, 159 Ingram Street, Glasgow	EGM77
1847/2	Plan of Glasgow.	St Rollox Chemical Works to Gorbals; Kelvin to Bridgeton. Main streets and public buildings named.	2.5"=1 mile	Engraved by G. Aikman	EGM78
1847/3	Lizars' Guide to the Caledonian Railway from Edinburgh and Glasgow to Carlisle: commenced 1845, opened 1847.	Towns, counties and county boundaries are shown. Also rivers, railway lines and stations. There are 10 pictures, five at each side showing places along the route, including Glasgow and Edinburgh termini; Corra Linn; Beatock Station; Dumfries; Carlisle; Citadel Station; and the Greymare's Tail.	0.5"=1 mile	Engravers: Joseph Locke and John Edward Errington. Engineers: Stephenson & Co., contractors	EGM79

EARLY GLASGOW MAPS

Date	Title	Description	Scale	Engraver/Publisher	Ref. No.
1847-48	Plan of Glasgow and suburbs engraved expressly for the Post Office Directory	Sighthill Cemetery to Gorbals; Partick to Camlachie. Streets named and some public buildings; those outside the city are not shown in great detail.	5"=1 mile	Engraver: Joseph Swan, 65 St. Vincent Street, Glasgow	EGM80
1848-49	Plan of Glasgow and suburbs engraved expressly for the Post Office Directory	Sighthill Cemetery to Gorbals; Partick to Camlachie. Streets named and some public buildings; those outside the city are not shown in great detail.	5"=1 mile	Engraver: Joseph Swan, 65 St. Vincent Street, Glasgow	EGM80a
1849-50	Plan of Glasgow and suburbs engraved expressly for the Post Office Directory	Sighthill Cemetery to Gorbals; Partick to Camlachie. Streets named and some public buildings; those outside the city are not shown in great detail.	5"=1 mile	Engraver: Joseph Swan, 65 St. Vincent Street, Glasgow	EGM80b
[1848]	Glasgow and suburbs	Port Dundas to Gorbals; West End (Sauchiehall Street) to East of Bridgeton. Only some streets named, individual buildings shown but none named.	6.1"=1 mile	Published by W.R. McPhun, 86 Trongate, Glasgow	EGM81
c. 1850	Glasgow. Corrected to the present time by J. Dower, F.R.G.S.	Partickhill to Barrowfield; Sighthill to Pollokshields. Streets and buildings named, railway lines shown. Manuscript additions by Wm. Simpson	8 furlongs = 1 mile	Litho. By William Simpson, lettering by David Allan	EGM82
1851	Map of the country for ten miles around Glasgow by Edward Meikleham, C.E.	Campsie Hills to Eaglesham; Kilbarchan to Airdrie. Only some streets shown, none named. Key to buildings such as farms. Shows Glasgow boundary and there is an illustration at each corner : Glasgow Bridge, Dalnotter Hill, Cora Linn and the Broomielaw.	1"=1 mile	Engraved by Macdonald, 57 Buchanan Street, Glasgow	EGM 82a

EARLY GLASGOW MAPS

Date	Title	Description	Scale	Engraver/Publisher	Ref. No.
[1852]	Map of the country for ten miles around Glasgow by Edward Meikleham, C.E.	Campsie Hills to Eaglesham; Kilbarchan to Airdrie. Only some streets shown, none named. Key to buildings such as farms. Shows Glasgow boundary and there is an illustration at each corner : Glasgow Bridge, Dalnotter Hill, Cora Linn and the Broomielaw.	1"=1 mile	Engraved by Maclure and Macdonald, 20 St. Vincent Place, Glasgow	EGM83
19th century	Sketch plan showing extensions of Glasgow Municipality during the 19th century	Maryhill to Pollokshaws; Partick to Calton. Main streets shown, but not named. A few important buildings shown in outline but not named. Extent of the municipality at different times during the 19th century is depicted by colours, with a key.	6"=1 mile (approx)	Rob Gardener & Co., Parliamentary Lithographers, Glasgow	EGM84
1850	Plan of the barony of Gorbals, showing the properties of the City of Glasgow, the Royal Incorporation of Hutcheson's Hospital and the Trades' House of Glasgow.		450ft = 1 mile (approx)	Gilmour & Dean, Lithographers	EGM85